

Luiza Altmann

Orlando, Florida native, Luiza Altmann has been a student of the game of golf since she began playing at the age of nine. She quickly began playing competitively and eventually joined the Brazilian National Team at the age of twelve. Shortly after joining the National Team, Luiza became the Number One Ranked Brazilian Women's Golfer at the young age of fifteen.

Luiza played two years of collegiate golf at the University of Miami before making the decision to turn pro; joining the Ladies European Tour and the Epson Tour (previously known as Symetra Tour). While playing professionally, Luiza finished her Bachelor's degree online, eventually graduating with a degree in finance. Both Luiza's amateur and professional careers are filled with many accomplishments. Some of which include; Brazilian Amateur Champion (2016), Chilean Junior Champion (2015), top-three finish at the Florida Women's Open (2018), top-two finish at the Latin American International Championship (2020), and top-two finish at the Ladies European Tour- Aramco Series.

Luiza was excited to join Backswing Golf Events to help raise money for great companies and organizations. She loves engaging with players on the course and looks forward to meeting new people!

